Thank you for your enquiry!

We have two self-catering cottages where people come to stay and then do as little or as much riding as they want at our Riding Centre. All prices in enclosed brochures. There is a shop, a pub and a café in the local village Milfield and there are several other pubs in the area serving bar meals for lunch and supper. While staying in the cottages you can create your own programme of what you would like to do on your holiday and you pay for as little or as much riding as you wish.

WE DO NOT DO PACKAGES

We have tried creating packages and it doesn't work! It might pour with rain people suddenly decide they want to go to Edinburgh or the Metro Centre, have a lazy day or they become too sore!! We have found the best way is for you to say what you would like to do during your holiday when you book the cottage. We will then book in the first days riding and then book each day (the day before) as it comes

The most popular thing people do is a 2-hour ride at 10.00am and then another 2-hour ride at 2.00pm along a different route. Or maybe a 2hr in the morning or afternoon and a beach or a hill ride in the morning or afternoon. We can do a dozen or so different rides either in the woods, the fields, on the moor or along the riverbank or a mixture of them all!

For longer rides we go to the Beach or the Cheviot Hills (in the horse box). These take approximately 4 hours by the time you get there and back, about 2 hours 15 mins on the horse. For the total novice we do 1hr rides or even a half hour starter ride.

We have a variety of different horses and ponies. Either fast and exciting or slow and sedate but this means we can take friends of different abilities on the same ride and they can all enjoy themselves.

In between the morning and afternoon rides we recommend a trip to the local pub for refreshments. Younger people could bring a packed lunch to eat in the tack room. For teenagers we can do residential holidays staying in one of the farm cottages with a responsible member of staff. All meals are included and they are closely supervised.
